Dear Mr. Frazier:

As State Attorney Chief Investigator Thomas Artingstall advised you on October 13, 2010, this office would not be taking any action upon your public records complaint against the Seminole County Sheriff's Office as that agency was acting upon advice of legal counsel. Investigator Artingstall also advised you that if you wished to litigate the legal issues involved with the records requested, you had the ability under Florida Public Records law to initiate a civil complaint.

In response to your letter dated February 18, 2011, the position of this office has not changed.

Sincerely,

NORMAN R. WOLFINGER
STATE ATTORNEY
