Subject: PAL Taxes

Hi Scott,

I just spoke to Vanessa Tally with the Accounting firm you provided me with earlier today. Vanessa explained to me that they were just retained by PAL and they have not yet done their 990 for 2011 and will not be preparing them until May as they are filing an extension. Vanessa also told me that her firm did not prepare the 1099's that I am questioning, she said my questions would be best answered by the person that prepared them and to her knowledge it was the previous firm.

I have already called Lashley, Seland and Retroff who did the PAL taxes for years previously and they told me they did not do prepare the current 1099's that Vanessa and her firm is in possession of. I have voiced my concerns about these 1099's that have been issued not only to my children, but to your daughter as well, Scott. I shouldn't have to jump through so many hoops just to get this information and I would think you would want to know too.

The fact that Dwayne has provided information to me about how to file theses taxes and telling me that I have to pay $200 of employment taxes for working at the camps is just not correct. What I need now is who is taking responsibility for preparing the 1099's that went out for the 2011 work year and can we get this information quickly as I am anxious to my taxes done.

Since you have appointed yourself as the mouth piece for PAL now, I would appreciate and expedited answer to my questions.
Thank you,

12-A
